

I love my XM radio. Putting local traffic and weather on satellite makes it even better! If local broadcasters don't like the competition, let them improve their product. They don't need protectionist legislature.